

Jim Langsdale
New Chapters Chair

Jim Langsdale is the Director of Business Development in the Houston office of Grant Thornton, LLP. Prior to joining Grant Thornton, Jim was a Director with Automatic Data Processing (ADP) for 13 years where he was recognized for numerous sales achievements, was awarded seven President's Club awards, and served as the National Director of Corporate Alliances for eight years. Jim has served as the Vice President of Operations and Training for two separate International Franchise Organizations where he was recognized as the "Trainer of the Year" for North America in 1980. Since joining Grant Thornton in 2002, Jim has been recognized perennially as one of the top producing Business Developers. He is also a Practice Development instructor at Grant Thornton's Senior Manager Development Conference and serves as a member of the Grant Thornton Strategic Learning taskforce. Jim's community involvement includes the Greater Houston Partnership, the Association for Corporate Growth, Turnaround Management Association, Texas Coalition for Capital, and Houston Producers Forum.