

Steve Lynn

Vice President | Digitec

E-mail: slynn@digiteconline.com

Steve Lynn is in his 24th year within the Office Technology Industry and through those years has held a variety of positions. In 2012, Mr. Lynn moved from Cleveland, Ohio to Houston, Texas to become the Vice President of Business Development for DigiTec.

Mr. Lynn is focused on developing strategic business relationships in Houston's core industries. Steve's desire to maintain a customer facing approach versus purely internal allows him to spend time with select customers to better understand the regional and marketplace challenges.

Mr. Lynn holds a Bachelor of Science Economics from The State University of New York College at Buffalo, is a Project Management Professional and a Six Sigma Green Belt through Motorola University; he has won a variety of nationally and internationally recognized awards in the office technology industry and has been a guest speaker at manufacturer's conferences.
